

Stakeholder Information Sessions on the Transition of the Developmental Disabilities Administration (DDA) Resource Coordination System

Introduction

The Developmental Disabilities Administration (DDA) is transitioning the current resource coordination service delivery methodology for all people receiving services from the DDA to Medicaid Targeted Case Management for all Medicaid eligible and DDA rate based service for non-Medicaid eligible. The transition will provide standardize scope of services, deliverables, rates, and increase federal matching funding.

Informational Sessions

The following information sessions will provide an overview on specific topic areas:

Topic	Date	Location
A. DDA Resource Coordination Overview	9/7/12	Meeting House Columbia
1. Current System
2. Resource Coordination Methodologies/Options
3. Input Process (FY 10 – 12)
4. New System FY 14
5. Scope of Service
a) Eligibility Assistance
b) Waiting List Coordination Services
c) Community Coordination Services
d) Transition Coordination Services
B. Resource Coordination Providers	9/7/12	Meeting House Columbia
1. Service Areas (Regions)
2. Provider Interest Meetings
3. Selection Process
4. Transition Plan
C. Proposed Rate	10/10/12	Meeting House Columbia
1. Logic
2. Assumptions
D. Payment/Billing System	12/4/12	Meeting House Columbia
1. Medicaid Targeted Case Management
2. DDA Rate Based Service		